FY 2007 Regulatory Fees Due No Later Than September 19, 2007

The Federal Communications Commission announced today that licensees who are required to pay annual regulatory fees must make their FY 2007 payments no later than September 19, 2007. All regulatory fee payments must be received at the Commission's Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania address by 11:59 PM on September 19 to avoid being charged a 25 percent late-payment penalty. All payments also must include a FCC Registration Number (FRN) in order to be processed.

This year, the Commission will mail assessment notices to media services licensees and Commercial Mobile Radio Service (CMRS) cellular and mobile services providers; and bills to Cable Television Relay Service (CARS) station, earth station and space station licensees, and Interstate Telecommunications Service Providers (ITSPs). Licensees who will not be receiving assessment notices or bills are encouraged to visit our Internet web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/fees/regfees.html> to gather specific information regarding payment of FY 2007 regulatory fees.

For additional information on regulatory fees, please contact the FCC Financial Operations Help Desk at (877) 480-3201, Option 4.
